

Kristen Schelling, Pro

Kristen Schelling is a professional golfer and played competitively most of her life while growing up in Arizona. Kristen received her Bachelor's at University of Nevada Las Vegas and Master's in Sport Management at Indiana University, where she also played her collegiate golf.

Kristen's early golf career consisted of her playing in 13 different USGA Events; she was also a part of 2006 Junior Ryder Cup Player, AJGA Rolex Honorable Mention, and Arizona 5A Division State High School Individual Champion. During her collegiate golf career, Kristen led her team to the NCAA DI regionals for four years, had five top-10 finishes, and was awarded Big Ten Golfer of the week. She was also a three-year letter winner at UNLV.

Kristen is residing in Illinois while working for BackSwing Golf Events. Kristen's passion for the game of golf and impacting people's lives is a big part of why she joined the company. She is always passionate for the causes she is fundraising for and brings her positive attitude and outgoing personality to all of the events.
